

Peter D. Davis

207 W Park St.
Cuero, TX 77954

361.564.5407
pete@callpete.com

Skills

- Hardware and software support.
- Microsoft server and desktop operating systems.
- TCP/IP, including DNS, DHCP, SNMP
- HTML, PHP, and SQL.
- Wireless, wired, and fiber optic networking.
- Mikrotik RouterOS, Cisco Router
- HP-UX, FreeBSD, Linux
- Microsoft Exchange Server
- Microsoft Active Directory

Experience

November 1999 to Present Founded and operated CallPete.com Freelance Consulting Company currently in Cuero TX	Offered network, server, desktop and laptop support to small businesses and residential customers Set up websites, email and domain services. Left the Austin area to found NoDial.Net in 2002, but continued the consulting business
April, 2008 to September 2009 Manpower contract employee Network Technician at Formosa Plastics , Point Comfort, TX	Worked in the ISC department with PC, network, and systems maintenance. Supporting networked PC LAN customers, installing and maintaining a page/party system, camera systems, and other security, network, and communications systems. Interfaced with other departments to coordinate service calls, improvements, and customer service
November 2002 to September 2007 Co Founded and operated NoDial.net, Inc , Cuero, TX	Operated a Wireless Internet Service Provider based in serving over 500 subscribers in Dewitt, Victoria, and Goliad counties. Responsibilities included network design and support, customer relations, installation and support, Email and Web server setup and management, Firewall design, development and management. Supervised computer and network consulting within and outside the realm of the ISP business. Managed employees and contract installers. Successfully completed the transition of management to Internet America, INC, as they have completed the purchase of the company.
January 1998 to February 2000. IT manager for Mytech Inc , an electronics manufacturing company in Austin, TX	Managed 3 servers and 40 desktop PCs in the Sales, Engineering, Manufacturing, Shipping, and Accounting departments. Transitioned company to a Y2K compliant EIRP system, developed the company's web presence and strategy, installed and managed Microsoft Exchange server, and managed PC hardware and software purchasing. Left company to focus on entrepreneurial pursuits.
May 1997 to December 1997 IT Manager for MoneyStar Corporation , a startup software development firm in Austin, TX	Setup and managed network, including servers, routers, firewalls, desktops, etc. for 25 employees. Left company due to downsizing and lack of Pre-IPO funding.
February 1995 to May 1997 (Contract Employee) IT Manager for Systems Engineering Department of Advanced Micro Devices , Austin, TX	Managed Servers, desktops, and networked laboratory equipment in Systems Engineering Lab. Supported Engineering staff with network needs, including HP-UX servers, Tektronics DAS units, and other diagnostic equipment. Left AMD to get involved with the MoneyStar startup opportunity
June 1994 to February 1995 (Contract Employee) Network Support Technician for Applied Materials ,	Supported over 1500 Windows 3.1 users on a site-wide Novell network. Managed helpdesk calls, parts replacement, and development of installation scripts.
June 1992 to June 1994 Technical Support Representative for Dell Computer Corporation , Austin, TX	Supported business and residential computer users with desktop, laptop, and server computers over the telephone. Dispatched parts delivery and on-site technicians.

Education

Texas State Technical College, Waco, TX AAS Degree, Computer Maintenance. 1992